

EXCELSIOR FIRE DISTRICT GIFT LIST

Looking for a last minute Christmas gift, stocking stuffer, Hanukkah gift, or gifts for any occasions, this is what Sparky the Fire Dog, Freddie the Fire Truck, and the EFD Firefighters suggest.

Smoke Alarms

There is a variety available through electricians, smoke alarm companies, and the big box stores. There are wireless smoke alarms , ones you can record a message on, and ones with lights, just to name a few.

Carbon Monoxide Alarms

Purchase one with a digital read out and that can also be plugged into an outlet with a battery backup. Avoid getting a dual smoke and CO alarm.

Stovetop FireStop

An automatic fire suppression product that puts out fire on stovetops, even grease fires. There are range hood/vented hood models and models for stovetops with microwave hung above them. They are typically available online or by special order only. Go to the web site for more information. <http://www.stovetopfirestop.com/where-to-buy>

Deep Fryer

A safety feature is built in so oil will not over heat. No more pan frying when you can use a deep fryer.

New Pot Holders

Purchase ones with good thermal protection and that are fire resistive.

Battery Operated Candles or Flameless Candles

They are available in most stores that sell regular candles. They flicker like a regular candle flame, have many sizes, and come in scented versions.

Fire Extinguisher

Purchase a fire extinguisher that is made for the area it would be used in. Purchase a fire extinguisher with a dial that shows when it is charged/good and expired/no good.

Safe-T-Elements

Engineered to help prevent cooking fires on electrical stovetops by reducing the amount of electricity required to cook. Available throughout North America as a retrofit for existing electric coiled stoves also available pre-installed in new stoves.

New Space Heater

Space heaters manufactured in the last couple of years have added safety features.

New Propane/Outdoor Heaters

New propane heaters have safety features and enclosed heating elements to prevent fires.

A Residential Fire Sprinkler System

Give the gift that will save your loved ones lives if a fire should occur in their home.

Fire Prevention

Keep in mind a lesson in Fire Prevention is one of the greatest gifts you can give to protect the ones you love. It only takes a little time, there is no wrapping, shopping, crowded malls, or shipping costs. It's FREE.
